

Virtual Learning Day Schedule

All students are required to attend classes on the Virtual Learning Days from home. Attendance will be taken in all classes (exception: lunch and study hall). Your classroom teachers will provide instructions for assignments and lessons will be conducted synchronously (real-time) or asynchronously (recorded). Please complete and turn in any work that is due and actively participate in your classes.

Resource period is for all students needing extra help or make up work. Also, after school activities will operate normally on these days.
