Line Manager:		Induction Coordinator*:

Induction Coordinator: The induction coordinator is someone nominated by the Line Manager to support the induction process. This role may be performed by more than one person.

The checklist below includes recommended induction tasks to be undertaken within the first 3 months of an existing staff members transfer within the University. The list does not include local processes and activities that are essential to ensuring the existing staff member is inducted effectively into the School/Branch. Work areas may choose to add activities to this checklist to reflect local needs. As existing staff transfer can be varied the Line Managers and/or Induction Coordinators will need to use their discretion to ensure the induction is relevant and appropriate for the staff member.

Pre-Commencement
Done	Task	Responsibility
	Contact New Starter Contact the new starter and discuss arrangements for first day (e.g. location, start time, who to meet, what to bring, car parking etc.).	Line Manager
	Identify Induction Coordinator Identify and liaise with an appropriate Induction Coordinator* to assist with induction set-up. Ensure the nominated Induction Coordinator understands their role and responsibilities. Whilst tasks can be allocated to the Induction Coordinator, the Line Manager has overall accountability for ensuring these are undertaken. If no Induction Coordinator is nominated, the Line Manager will perform this role.	Line Manager
	Notify Work Area Staff Email School/Branch/team in the week prior to advise when the new staff member will be commencing. Provide brief outline of new starter's background, role, reporting line and their location.	Line Manager
	Identify Buddy (Optional) Identify an appropriate buddy who can assist the new starter to settle in. A buddy is usually someone working at a similar level within the same School/Branch, but not necessarily the same team and is chosen because they would be a good role model for the new starter. Notify the buddy of your nomination and the new starter's commencement date.	Line Manager
