Graduate Application Fee Waiver Request

University of the Pacific's Graduate School provides a limited number of application fee waivers to applicants who meet any of the following criteria:

- U.S. Citizens or permanent residents who can provide evidence of a significant financial hardship.
- McNair Scholars
- University of the Pacific Graduates whose degrees have been awarded within the last 3 years

If you believe you may qualify for an application fee waiver, please begin your University of the Pacific graduate application, complete the Graduate Application Fee Waiver Request form included in this document, attach any appropriate documentation and email it to gradadmission@pacific.edu.

Once your request has been reviewed, you will receive an email notification containing your request decision and if approved, a fee waiver code which may be entered at the end of your application.

Please note, fee waiver requests are reviewed Monday – Friday during regular business hours and all paid application fees are non-refundable.

This policy does not apply to those seeking admission to the Physical Therapy, Physician Assistant, Speech Language Pathology, Audiology, or Athletic Training programs. Applicants to these programs should view the Instructions and FAQs section of their respective applications for details regarding application fees and waivers.
