

Revising: Evaluate Comparison-Contrast Essays

DIRECTIONS Use the following questions to evaluate your comparison-contrast essay or that of a classmate.

- Answer the questions.
- Rate the parts of the essay. The lowest score is 1, and the highest is 4.
- Make at least three suggestions for improving the essay.

1. What grabs the audience’s attention in the first one or two sentences?	Rating 1 2 3 4 Suggestion:
2. How does the introduction identify both subjects and the thesis of the essay?	Rating 1 2 3 4 Suggestion:
3. In what ways does the body organization show either the block method or the point-by-point method?	Rating 1 2 3 4 Suggestion:
4. How effective is the conclusion in bringing the essay to a close through summary or evaluation?	Rating 1 2 3 4 Suggestion: