

Course Feedback Questionnaire Spring 2022

Thank you for taking the time to give me feedback on our work together this semester in [S$NAME].

Your responses will give me a sense of your experience and help me think about what worked well and what can be improved about this course. At Smith, we believe that there are many different ways to teach well and that all teaching is improvable. Your responses will be read also by college administrators, department chairs, program directors, and the faculty committee that makes recommendations regarding tenure and promotion. Your responses will remain confidential. Your name will not be associated with your responses unless you choose to sign your name at the end of this questionnaire.

The response to the final question—“What would you like to say about this course to a student who is considering taking it in the future?”—will be made available to me and I may choose to share the comments with future students.
