TSSAA STUDENT OFFICIALS PROGRAM GUIDELINES AND REGULATIONS

Program is on an experimental level in all sports. The use of high school students to register (with affiliate status) will receive training through a local association.

High schools are asked to recruit high school students who are interested in officiating athletic contests. Student will register with TSSAA as Student Official with affiliate status. Applications can be printed from the TSSAA website: www.tssaa.org.

There will be no registration fee charged with TSSAA for affiliate status, but applicants will be required to take a qualifying exam and affiliate with a TSSAA recognized local officials' association. Materials will be mailed to each student official.

There will be no registration fee during status as a student official with the local association.

The student official will work within the local association to receive education, training, and observation as a student official.

The registered student official may work B-team or J.V. athletic contests only in football, basketball, baseball, and softball when working with qualified official (s) assigned by approved local association. They may work B-team, J.V. or middle school in volleyball, wrestling, and soccer when working with qualified official (s) assigned by approved local association.

Schools will recruit and recommend students that are willing to register as student officials.
