

University Development Internship Application

University Development offers internships for summer, fall, and spring semesters for students enrolled at the University of Mississippi. As a development intern, you will gain valuable experience in donor cultivation, development communications, gift solicitation, and stewardship. The internship is a competitive program which requires you to submit a resume and a cover letter summarizing why you are interested in a career in fundraising. After initial screening, selected candidates will be invited for an interview.

For more information, visit <https://give.olemiss.edu/about/internships/>

Name:

Major:

Mailing Address:

E-mail Address:

Phone:

Classification:      Sophomore      Junior      Senior      Graduate Student

Internship term desired:      Summer      Fall      Spring

How did you hear about this internship program?

Send completed application, resume, and cover letter to:

Liz duPerier
University Development
liz@olemiss.edu
406 University Ave
Oxford, MS 38655
662.915.1584