The regular academic year at WBU includes the fall and spring terms. Each term is divided into two eight-week sessions. The summer eight-week session is considered a standalone "trailing" term.

- Academic year financial aid eligibility is determined with the assumption that you will attend full-time for the fall and spring terms (four eight-week sessions).
- Summer financial aid requires at least half-time attendance and is generally limited to unused federal and state aid eligibility from the academic year and/or private student loans.

- ☐ I plan to enroll in five eight-week sessions in the 2022-23 academic year. Divide my federal loan eligibility equally between five eight-week sessions of attendance: Fall 1, Fall 2, Spring 1, Spring 2, and Summer
- ☐ I plan to enroll in _____ eight-week sessions in the 2022-23 academic year. Divide my federal loan eligibility equally between the following eight-week sessions of attendance (check all that apply):
- ☐ Fall 1 ☐ Fall 2 ☐ Spring 1 ☐ Spring 2 ☐ Summer
- ☐ I do not plan to borrow from the federal loan programs. Do not offer loans as part of my financial aid eligibility.

Notes for Financial Aid Advisor:

By completion of this form, you are acknowledging your intent to enroll for the 2022-23 academic year at WBU and that you wish for your federal loan eligibility to be divided according to your planned enrollment outlined above. All other types of financial aid eligibility will be offered according to available funding and intended enrollment.
