ROAD MAP FOR NEW STUDENTS

Congratulations on selecting the University of New Haven! As you begin to transition from your high school to the University, there are a number of steps that you will need to complete before you begin your journey.

We've created a checklist that will assist you with these steps, the Road Map for New Students, which will become a resource for you and your family as you complete your transition to campus.

This Road Map is an interactive way for you to keep track of all of the steps you have completed and what you still are required to do before you arrive on campus. Some of these steps include:

- Submitting your final official high school/college transcripts
- Registering for SOAR (Student Orientation, Advising, and Registration)
- Submitting your school identification photo
- Signing up for a meal plan
- Accepting or waiving health insurance
- Learning about the Common Experience module
- Submitting Transfer Clearance Form(s) (Transfer Students Only)

For more information, visit newhaven.edu/NewStudents.

YOUR ENROLLMENT COMMITMENT FEE IS NON-REFUNDABLE AND NON-TRANSFERABLE TO ANOTHER SEMESTER. PLEASE DO NOT SUBMIT YOUR DEPOSIT UNTIL YOU HAVE DEFINITELY DECIDED THAT YOU WILL BE ATTENDING THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAVEN.

I agree to pay all financial obligations incurred by my attendance at the University of New Haven.

The University of New Haven is committed to achieving a diverse and pluralistic community that reflects the multiracial and culturally diverse society in the United States through strict non-discrimination in admissions, educational programs and employment. The commitment to Affirmative Action is also a commitment to be proactive in the continuing effort to diversify the faculty, staff and the student body at the University. The University will base decisions on admission so as to further the principle of equal opportunity.

I authorize the University to publish or have published on its behalf for public relations purposes: photos, videos, and other likenesses of the applicant, the applicant's voice, and/or the applicant's name, hometown, major, honors, sports, and other activities (whether in print or electronically, including but not limited to use in social media, on websites, and by any other means now known or hereafter developed), at any time after the University issues an offer of admission to the applicant. The applicant may rescind this publicity authorization (or any part of it) by notifying the University's Marketing & Communications Department in writing at any time. Upon receipt of such notice, the University will promptly cease all future publicity uses of the rescinded subject matter, but shall not be required to remove any such subject matter from any previously published materials.
